Memorial Trek Across Texas To Make Stop At DPD Headquarters

Each year, a group of State Law Enforcement Officers embark on a 2000+ mile bicycle journey, in the Memorial Trek Across Texas, to pay tribute to every law enforcement officer in Texas that lost their life in the line of duty the previous year. This ride will make its way to Dallas, Texas to honor Senior Corporal Victor Lozada, #5761, who died on February 22, 2008. These riders will be carrying an honor flag that has the names of all the officers that gave the ultimate sacrifice in 2008. A special battle ribbon will also be placed on the honor flag to pay tribute to Senior Corporal Norman Smith, #6613.

A brief ceremony will take place in front of the Jack Evans Police Headquarters located at 1400 S. Lamar on Tuesday April 28, 2009 at 8:30 am. During the ceremony, the Dallas Police Honor Guard will accept a wreath to honor Corporal Lozada. For more information please contact the Police Media Relations Office at (214) 671-4065.
