Chief Brown to Present Awards

Dallas Police Chief David O. Brown will host an award ceremony for members of the department on today, February 5, 2016 at 2:00 P.M. The presentation of awards will take place at the Jack Evans Police Headquarters in the Donald A. Stafford Media Conference Room. The media is welcomed to attend.

Among the awards to be presented will be the Medal of Honor and Life Saving Award that will be given to Police Officer Richard A. Stewart, #9391. Officer Stewart will be awarded for willingly entering a dangerous situation while off duty and wrestling a weapon away from an armed robbery suspect to prevent injury or possibly even death.

The Medal of Valor will be given to Police Officer Christopher Berry, #10668. Officer Berry will be awarded for demonstrating exceptional bravery by willingly placing himself in a dangerous situation to prevent injury and loss of property during a business robbery while on his way to and extra job.

For more information regarding the above mentioned awards ceremony, please contact the Police Media Relations Unit at (214) 671-4065.
