Dallas Police Department To Open New Community Outreach Center At Southwest Center Mall

- WHAT: Ribbon-cutting ceremony to celebrate the opening of the new Dallas Police Department Camp Wisdom Outreach Center
- WHEN: 2 p.m., Tuesday, April 26, 2016
- WHERE: Southwest Center Mall, 3662 Camp Wisdom Road
- WHO: Chief David Brown, Deputy Chief Albert Martinez, Deputy Chief Christina Smith and Southwest Center Mall owner Peter Brodsky will be present at the ribbon-cutting.
- WHY: The new Camp Wisdom Outreach Center is a new facet in the longstanding tradition of community policing of the Dallas Police Department. The center, embedded in the community, reinforces the DPD's commitment to neighborhood residents and businesses to be part of the community and have an additional police presence. That additional police presence will help counteract the perception of crime around the mall. The outreach center will serve as an information center for the public and as a supplementary office for officers from the Southwest and South Central Patrol Divisions.
