Police Chief Candidate Meet and Greet To Be Held Tuesday

Candidates interviewing for Dallas Police Chief will be available for a citizen meet and greet from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, July 11 at Dallas City Hall, 1500 Marilla Street, second floor foyer.

Also on Tuesday, the candidates will participate in panel interviews with partners in the law enforcement community; leaders from the faith-based community; members of the various police associations; advocates who lead police support groups; and other neighborhood and community leaders.

On Monday, the candidates will tour various police facilities and parts of Dallas and will attend a private reception Monday evening with key community stakeholders.

The official list of candidates interviewing for the new Police Chief are:

- Malik Aziz, Deputy Chief, Dallas Police Department
- Carmen Best, Deputy Chief, Seattle Police Department
- U. Renee Hall, Deputy Chief, Detroit Police Department
- Michel Moore, First Assistant Chief, Los Angeles Police Department
- Luther Reynolds, Assistant Chief, Montgomery County (Maryland) Police Department
- Gary Tittle, Assistant Chief, Dallas Police Department
- Rick Watson, Deputy Chief, Dallas Police Department

City Manager T.C. Broadnax will determine next steps after the interview process is concluded on Wednesday.

Please contact the City of Dallas Public Information Office with any questions.
