“Let’s Talk” 2017

On Thursday, July 27, 2017, the Dallas Police Department will host the 3rd Annual “Let’s Talk”, forum for youth ages 10 to 15 years old. The goal of the event is to encourage open dialogue between youth and police department representatives with this year’s theme being, “Community First”. Let’s Talk is a platform in which young people will be able to speak freely with officers and other police department personnel.

Let’s Talk* will be held Thursday, July 27, 2017, from 8:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. at the AT&T Performing Arts Center located at 2403 Flora Street. There will be celebrity speakers and giveaways. Lunch is provided for the participants, and there is seating available for parents who would like to stay for the event.

Members of the media are invited to join us for the beginning of the event from 8:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m. during the main session, which will all take place in the AT&T Performing Arts Center theatre. Media will have a designated area inside the theatre during the general session. There will also be time for stand-up media interviews onsite in the AT&T Performing Arts Center lobby, starting at 8:15 a.m., with Interim Chief of Police David Pughes. For more information contact the Media Relations Office (214) 671-4065.
